

Short Project Note

I used Gemini to help create the code for my project because it provided a clear and well-structured implementation. This made the development process easier and helped me understand and organize the code more effectively. I then tested and worked with the generated code to make sure it matched my project requirements.